

Hello!

We hope you're having a lovely summer and making the most of the Harbourside's fantastic establishments and events. But there's no rest for the folks at Shipshape HQ – we're already hard at work on our autumn issue and here's what we've got coming up...

Bridge over troubled water

Would an additional bridge across the river help Harbourside businesses or hinder those who work on the water? We look the plans, pros and cons

Star attraction

All aboard as Bristol's historic Matthew sets sail for London to promote the new Chronicles of Narnia feature film

From polytunnel to plate

We take a ferry to Clifton Lido's vegetable garden in Pill and pick up some handy horticultural tips

And the rest...

Read about this season's must-see plays and performances in our events pages, peruse the Directory for exclusive offers and plan your route around the harbour using our map

To comment, find out about our distribution or to request a media pack contact the Shipshape team at info@shipshapebristol.co.uk

Advertising enquiries: alex@thecliftonagency.com

Shipshape online: www.shipshapebristol.co.uk

Autumn issue available throughout Bristol Harbourside from Monday September 6 2010